It is told that Tendon and Tempura food culture started as a street food from End Period, another word is Sasmurai Period.

At that time, Tempura was served with skewer, in a category of fast food. Then tendon style which is tempura top on rice has been started to serve afterward.

Tempura and Tendon Restaurant style has been started since the end of Edo Period, and spread over to Osaka in Meiji Period.

Just quick to eat Tendon with Edo style sauce top on it, then leave... This food culture still continue today.
